Each year, over 9,000 abused women and their children
walk through the doors of BHcare's UCDVS program looking for shelter, help, and hope.

In 2012, there were 12 reported homicides from intimate partner domestic violence in Connecticut. So far this year, five lives have been lost. (Source: CCADV, July 2013). Learn about psychological and emotional abuse, stalking, and how technology interfaces with domestic violence.

Guest Speakers:

Leslie Morgan Steiner

Leslie Morgan Steiner is the author of Crazy Love, a New York Times bestseller. Her memoir about surviving domestic violence in her first marriage describes how, at 22 and a recent Harvard graduate working at Seventeen Magazine in New York City, she met a charming, handsome Ivy League graduate on the subway. Steiner takes readers on the baffling, terrifying journey of true love turned devastating – how she endured four years of attacks, eventually escaping and rebuilding her career and finding a happy family life with her second husband.

Steiner is a regular guest on the Today Show, National Public Radio, ABC, NBC, CBS, Fox News, and MSNBC. She has been profiled in Newsweek, BusinessWeek, Elle, Parenting, Parents, Self, Vogue, Vanity Fair, The Los Angeles Times and The Washington Post. She is a frequent speaker and corporate consultant on the subject of marketing to moms and family violence.

Mark Wynn

Mark Wynn is devoted to ending family violence as a veteran police officer, detective, educator, program supervisor, consultant and advisor. His numerous credentials include, but are not limited to:

- Twenty-one year member of the Nashville Metropolitan Police Department.
- He is the recipient of 121 commendations and 51 awards and certificates.
- He recently received the 2012 Family Justice Center Alliance Lifetime Achievement Award.
- In 2011 he was awarded the "Visionary Award" by End Violence Against Women International and the Distinguished Faculty Award by the National District Attorney's Association.
- Consultant to the National Stalking Resource Center of the National Center for Victims of Crime.
- Member of the Nashville Coalition Against Domestic Violence.

Hema Khan

Hema Khan is the Program Attorney for the Stalking Resource Center (SRC) at the National Center for Victims of Crime. The mission of the SRC is to enhance the ability of professionals, organizations, and systems to effectively respond to stalking. The SRC envisions a future in which the criminal justice system and its many allied community partners will effectively collaborate and respond to stalking, improve victim safety and well-being, and hold offenders accountable. Hema conducts training for law enforcement, victim advocates, judges and prosecutors on all aspects of stalking.
